

Dear Ellen,

Greetings from Le Meridien Angkor!

Thank you very much for contacting me, for your information, we found that they really have benefited from the program such as following.

- Gaining more knowledge about the hospitality services,
- Physical seeing the real things in the work place,
- More interacting with the guest,
- Build a good relationship with the team and
- Play as a team.

I think all of them are good employees and well trained because they are honest, good attitude, work hard and eager to learn new things to meet their commitment during the internship. Please feel free to contact me any time if you require further information.

Best regards,

TY SOKUNTHEA

HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGER | DIRECTEUR DES RESSOURCES HUMAINES

Dear Ellen Zaroff,

Warmest greeting from Amansara.

Thank you for your email.

First to all I would like to introduce myself; I am Sopheap Doung, Human Resource Manager at Amansara Resorts. I am in charge for staff recruitment and training.

We support Eg bok many years for internship program; we offer the job opportunity after they completed the internship period. Some of them are employing as permanence position and some are still on the temporary employment.

Most of them are very good performance with very well train by the school and Eg bok teachers including attitude, English speaking and job skills. As we found this very good performance then we give them the employment opportunity.

I hope this information is value for you and can be your reference.

Should you have any future information please do not hesitate to contact us.

Best regards,

Doung Sopheap

Dear Ellen,

Greetings from Heritage Suites and thank you for your E-mail.

Regarding our employees who have been trained by the Egbok mission, we are fully satisfied with their seriousness at work.

I assume The Egbok permanent coaching is well focused on loyalty, respect and responsibility.

Would you need further informations, I remain at your disposal.

With my best regards
